As you will know, at Scripture Union, we are passionate about helping churches with their mission to reach and journey with children and young people who are not regularly in church.

That is why I am so excited to let you know about a brand new tour that we will be doing this term. 'Mission Possible' is all about helping churches to grow in effective mission to children and young people. We have taken the findings from some research we carried out and have developed an interactive evening that explores 5 principles of effective mission. As well as delving into these principles, you will also go away with lots of practical ideas that you can use in your context.

To find out more and book your place please click Mission Possible Tour | Scripture Union

The event that is nearest to you is: 18th Oct 2023 Pancrasweek church, Pancrasweek (between Holsworthy & Bude), EX22 7JS 7:15 for 7:30pm start

The evening is aimed at anyone who is involved with youth and children's work, so please do invite others to join you and forward this message to them.

Do get back to me with any questions and I look forward to seeing you soon.

Holsworthy Church, 8th Oct 11am,
 All are welcome to our Harvest Thanksgiving
 Cafe-style Morning Prayer, preceded by a Harvest Breakfast.

The PCC's of Holsworthy Benefice will be hosting a reception in the Memorial Hall, after Revd. Alison Hardy's installation on Sunday 26th November, to which all attendee's are invited. An outside caterer will be providing a light buffet, coffee and tea will be available and the bar will be open.

The charges involved will be split between the churches and we take this opportunity to invite donations from all congregations and friends to cover the costs. If you would like to make a donation please give it to a leader in your church where it will be most gratefully received. All donations will be pooled and this way we hope to cover the costs for all churches. Our target is to raise £700 and then with gift aid added we will easily cover costs. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God,
increase in us your gift of faith
that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before,
we may run the way of your commandments
and win the crown of everlasting joy;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING

Either Isaiah 5:1-7

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

Let me sing for my beloved my love-song concerning his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill. He dug it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines; he built a watch-tower in the midst of it, and hewed out a wine vat in it; he expected it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes. And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard. What more was there to do for my vineyard that I have not done in it? When I expected it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes? And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured; I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down. I will make it a waste; it shall not be pruned or hoed, and it shall be overgrown with briars and thorns; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his pleasant planting: he expected justice, but saw bloodshed; righteousness, but heard a cry!

Or Exodus 20:1-4. 7-9. 12-20

PSALM Psalm 80:9-17

R Turn us again, O God;
show the light of your countenance,
and we shall be saved.

You brought a vine out of Egypt;
you drove out the nations and planted it.
You made room around it,
and when it had taken root, it filled the land. R

The hills were covered with its shadow
and the cedars of God by its boughs.
It stretched out its branches to the Sea
and its tendrils to the River. R

Why then have you broken down its wall,
so that all who pass by pluck off its grapes?

The wild boar out of the wood tears it off,
and all the insects of the field devour it. R

Turn again, O God of hosts,
look down from heaven and behold;
Cherish this vine which your right hand has planted,
and the branch that you made so strong
for yourself.

Let those who burnt it with fire, who cut it
down,
perish at the rebuke of your countenance. R

SECOND READING Philippians 3:4b-14

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians.

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on towards the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

GOSPEL Matthew 21:33-end

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a watch-tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went to another country. When the harvest time had come, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his slaves and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they treated them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance.' So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time." Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord's doing, and it is amazing in our eyes'?" Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom. The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls." When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realised that he was speaking about them. They wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.

POST COMMUNION

We praise and thank you, O Christ, for
this sacred feast:
for here we receive you,
here the memory of your passion is renewed,
here our minds are filled with grace,
and here a pledge of future glory is given,
when we shall feast at that table where
you reign
with all your saints for ever.

 Matthew 21:33-43

In the GOSPEL TODAY

WELCOME JESUS!

Who do I trust?

The man in today's story trusted the people with his vineyard. Draw a picture of the people you trust to look after your special things.

I trust _____
 with things that I own.

A PRAYER TO SAY

I want to welcome you into my life, Jesus. Help me to listen to your message so that I can grow good fruit to build God's kingdom. Amen.

redemptorist publications

A man put his workers in charge of his vineyard. Then he sent his servants to collect the grapes at harvest time. The workers refused to hand over the grapes and beat up the servants. This happened again and again. Eventually the man sent his own son, thinking the workers would treat him properly. But no! They didn't even listen to the son.

Maze

Welcome Jesus by helping him find his way through the vineyard.

Break the code

The people in today's story agreed to pay the vineyard owner what they owed him. But when the time came, they refused to keep their promise. Can you find out what Jesus asks us to do today?

Grow good fruit

We grow good fruit when we do as God asks. Match the letters in the purple grapes with the endings in the green grapes to find out how we can produce good fruit.

Answers: Good fruit: share, care, love, help, pray. Break the code: Keep your promises.
