Christmas reflection from Revd Dr Paul Fitzpatrick.

Advent is my favourite time of the year. I have previous memories of steaming coffeeshops reflected in the darkness outside. My university Carol Service packing out the Cathedral with the glowing happy faces on long held friends, Mince pies and Christmas fairs. This year we walk, bounded by hedgerows in the crisp cold air, home from Church with Sarah, under an icy night sky, lit up with planets and stars; a Barn Owl ghosting over the hedgerows and our local Vixen barking a warning. Fresh memories made now with new friends and in beautiful churches. Different times but the same magic; the 'not yet' time of anticipating, the wonder of the arrival of the Christ-child on earth.

This year has seen changes. Elizabeth has left us for a wonderful new post in the Scilly Isles, having seen us all through the Pandemic and reorganisation; she is sadly missed. Our quest for a new Minister is in full swing. We have seen a positive ecological review of all our Churchyards with significant community tree planting in two of them and surveys/work run out in others. Mission planning (across the Deanery) is happening apace, with exciting children and family engagement in progress, and the significant 'Anna' Community Chaplaincy project a major development taking us into the new year. But above all the selfless and endless humour, planning, work, and discipleship of our extended church family, remains my brightest memory of this year – Thank you.

As Advent is accomplished, the stillness of churches which have stood centuries, quietly serving, filled with prayer, the light of candles bouncing off the walls, the voices of carols and children, the scent of Christingle oranges; mark this time as different, special, hallowed, and Christ-filled; may I wish you all a happy, peaceful and blessed Christmas and the very best of new years.

Almighty God,
you have given us your only-begotten Son to take our nature upon him and as at this time to be born of a pure virgin:
grant that we, who have been born again and made your children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by your Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING Isaiah 52:7-10

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace, who brings good news, who announces salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns." Listen!
Your sentinels lift up their voices, together they sing for joy; for in plain sight they see the return of the LORD to Zion. Break forth together into singing, you ruins of Jerusalem; for the LORD has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem. The LORD has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

PSALM Psalm 98

R Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvellous things.

Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvellous things.
His own right hand and his holy arm have won for him the victory. R

The Lord has made known his salvation; his deliverance has he openly shown in the sight of the nations.
He has remembered his mercy and faithfulness towards the house of Israel, and all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. R

Sound praises to the Lord, all the earth break into singing and make music.
Make the music to the Lord with the lyre, with the lyre and the voice of melody.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn sound praises before the Lord, the King. R

Let the sea thunder and all that fills it, the world and all that dwell upon it.
Let the rivers clap their hands and let the hills ring out together before the Lord, for he comes to judge the earth.
In righteousness shall he judge the world, and the peoples with equity. R

SECOND READING

Hebrews 1:1-4 [5-12]

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds. He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs. [For to which of the angels did God ever say, "You are my Son; today I have begotten you"? Or again, "I will be his Father, and he will be my Son"? And again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says, "Let all God's angels worship him." Of the angels he says, "He makes his angels winds, and his servants flames of fire." But of the Son he says, "Your throne, O God, is for ever and ever, and the righteous sceptre is the sceptre of your kingdom. You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions." And, "In the beginning, Lord, you founded the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands; they will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like clothing; like a cloak you will roll them up, and like clothing they will be changed. But you are the same, and your years will never end."]

GOSPEL John 1:1-14

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.
He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man but of God.
And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.

POST COMMUNION

God our Father, whose Word has come among us in the Holy Child of Bethlehem: may the light of faith illumine our hearts and shine in our words and deeds; through him who is Christ the Lord.

GOSPEL TODAY

JESUS IS HERE!

Share the light

We can bring light into the world when we care for the people around us. How can you remember the true meaning of Christmas and share Jesus' light and love today?

Jesus was with God the Father at the beginning of time. Now Jesus has chosen to come to live as one of us. Jesus is the light of the world. Nothing will ever stop Jesus' light from shining. We know how much God the Father loves us because we can see God the Son, Jesus.

Dot to dot

Join the dots to see Jesus with his parents, Mary and Joseph.

Jesus' birthday!

Today we are celebrating Jesus' birthday. What present would you buy Jesus to celebrate? Draw or write about your idea in the gift.

A PRAYER TO SAY

Thank you for coming to live with us, Jesus, and showing me how much you love me. Help me to shine with your light and your love as I enjoy Christmas. Amen.

Christmas sudoku

Fill the grid with the Christmas pictures. Each row, column and grid should have just one of each of the different pictures.
